Checking Out New Web Site Features

by David M. Frye

Over the summer, a backlog of updates and additions made their way from my to-do list to the Club's Web site. Here's a quick rundown of the new items.

Order LINPEX Covers: This is the place to go to round out your complete set of covers from our annual show. We have images of 18 covers, prices, and a downloadable order form.

Nebraska Revenue Stamps: Ken Pruess has shared the slides from his presentation on this topic. He has a great collection and an informative set of slides.

U.S. Back of the Book—Air Mail: Ken Pruess dipped into his collection once again to put together this entertaining and educational look at the now discontinued air mail issues released by the USPS.

A Request for Global Stamp Trades

Hello, I am writing from Tokyo, Japan, where I have been living for 15+ years. I am a native Nebraskan and graduated from UNL.

Here in Asia, I have been collecting stamps and am looking for people who might like to trade for Japanese stamps.

For the moment, I am a generalist, though I have some interest in stamps from China.

Please feel free to contact me about setting up some trades.

Editor's Note: I exchanged a few e-mails with Bryan and found out he writes a blog about stamp collecting: http://stampsinjapan.blogspot.com.

He writes for English-speaking Japanese readers, so his writing is clear and straightforward.

There's a great post on the blog about his work to set up trading partners: http://stampsinjapan.blogspot.com/2010/06/trading-stamps.html.
