Stamp Club Offers Opportunities for Service and Leadership

by David M. Frye

The Lincoln Stamp Club's most visible moments come during our twice-monthly meetings and annually when we invite the southeast Nebraska stamp collecting community and the general public to enjoy the riches of our annual LINPEX.

Here are just a few ideas for how you can put your effort and talent to work to help make these events even more satisfying and fulfilling to all who attend and more attractive to our guests.

Business Meetings

- Prepare lots for the monthly exchange
- Look over the exchange list and bid on items that match your collecting passions
- Offer to prepare the exchanges
- Bring an intriguing item from your collection to share and to tell about.

Program Meetings

- Offer to give a program
- Share your questions about a presentation to contribute to a lively discussion
- Bring up ideas for new topics to cover.

Updating the Club's By-Laws

Review of Governing Documents on the Agenda for Meetings

The Lincoln Stamp Club's Board of Directors met on Thursday, August 15, and voted unanimously to recommend the membership adopt a set of revisions to the Club's By-Laws. You can download a copy of the draft revisions from the Club's Web site:

By-Laws: <http://www.lincolnstampclub.org/downloads/ByLaws2005Rev2013-draft.pdf>.

and review. Then the Club will hold a vote at the business meeting on November 7, 2013. These steps for considering revisions are the ones outlined in the By-Laws themselves.

The major proposal increases the number of possible positions on the Board of Directors to include members holding various positions of appointed leadership in the Club. Most other changes are editorial and are designed to achieve internal consistency in the document.

APRL Receives General Gift of Postal History Research Materials

Bellefonte, Pa. — Thomas J. Alexander has donated his postal history research archive and library to the American Philatelic Research Library.

The donation includes Alexander's entire philatelic library, including hundreds of books, along with copious notes, clippings, and research files. The materials reflect his broad range of interests—the early United States postal issues, steamboat mail, western forts, and the postal history of Kansas and Missouri. Also included are photocopies of collections and exhibits, both his own and those of other now-departed postal historians. The donated materials will be inventoried in detail, catalogued, and stored for use by philatelic scholars.

"Mr. Alexander is a highly regarded scholar," said librarian Tara Murray. "I am delighted that he has the foresight and generosity to preserve his research material and make it available to future generations of philatelists and postal historians through the American Philatelic Research Library."

The gift was facilitated by the U.S. Philatelic Classics Society Inc., of

Gone, But Still Collectible

The Penny Postal

The Club's program on October 17 will feature a DVD from the American Philatelic Society. This program, created by the United States Postal Stationery Society, introduces U.S. postal cards produced during the 1873–1952 period, when the domestic first-class postal card rate was one cent. Like stamps, postal cards were issued and reissued, production efforts varied, card stock fluctuated, and press technology advanced. As a result, many collectible varieties exist today. The cards are presented in chronological order, as they were issued.

which Mr. Alexander was President in 1981–1984. The USPCS provided a grant to cover shipping the 326 bankers boxes to Bellefonte, and hiring a library intern to process the collection and create a finding aid.

"Our Board of Directors had recognized that the Classics Society has a responsibility to preserve research materials from the classic period of U.S. philately," said John Barwis, current USPCS President. "So we were very pleased to have the opportunity to help make Tom Alexander's lifetime of philatelic work available to future students. We will serve Tara Murray and her staff in an advisory capacity as they evaluate and store Tom's wonderful donation."

This project was made possible by a grant to the U.S. Philatelic Classics

Society from the David T. Beals III Charitable Trust, Bank of America, trustee. "David Beals preceded Tom Alexander as president of the USPCS, and made important contributions to American postal history," said Barwis. "We are pleased to honor both David Beals and Tom Alexander by helping to preserve their work."

The APRL has one of the world's largest and most accessible collections of philatelic literature and holds several unique archives. Members of the APRL and the American Philatelic Society may borrow materials directly through the mail and others may access the collections through interlibrary loan. The APRL is open to the public and scholars are always welcome to do research on-site.
