Emancipation Proclamation Stamp

by David M. Frye

The U.S. Postal Service has released the design of the 2013 Emancipation Proclamation stamp. The cachet and show cancel for LINPEX 2013 will highlight this stamp and the key document it commemorates.

In the January 1, 1863, proclamation, President Abraham Lincoln noted, “all persons held as slaves within any State or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States, shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free,” as part of this Civil War-era “fit and necessary war measure.”

2013 Club Membership Dues Time

When you check the mailing label on this newsletter, you'll see a two-digit number after your name. This tells you when your membership in the Lincoln Stamp Club runs out. If there's a "12" after your name, please send your 2013 dues to the Club at the address shown on p. 1 of this newsletter. If there's a "13", you are already paid up. You can also bring your dues to one of the meetings.

2013 dues are $12 for an individual or $13 for a family membership.

Benefits include access to the Club's philatelic library, this monthly newsletter, voting rights at all business meetings, and the satisfaction of knowing you are helping to promote stamp collecting in the Lincoln area.
