Club Happenings Last Month

February 11 Meeting

We were able to meet in person with 12 members attending and 6 others joining on Zoom. We had brief introductions to greet our new members Peter Adams, Tom Johnson, and Don Ehly. It was decided that future meetings will take place on the second Thursday of the month and in-person meetings will be held at the College View Adventist Church. We finalized plans for LINPEX 21 and rounded out the 20 frames of exhibits

Mark Sellhorn showed a 1918 censored registered cover to Paris franked with a 6c Washington (Sc. 506) and a 15c Washington (Sc.514) both perfined NPB for the National Park Bank of New York.

Following the meeting, we looked thru and bought donated items.

LINPEX 2021

LINPEX was a great success with over 200 folks attending (with a great many children), 23 members, and two new members joining us, Stephen Allen of Harlan, Iowa and Matt Allen of Lincoln. As usual, there was a lot of activity at the beginners' tables, folks asking for evaluations of collections, and collectors finding reassures with the five dealers. The facility proved to be ideal for accommodating the dealers, exhibits, and all of the activities.

There were 70 raffle tickets sold for the Penny Black which was won by our own President, LaVonne Uffelman. The following folks were winners of the door prizes: Lynn Hawkins won the jigsaw puzzle; Gail Lindenkugel won the three souvenir sheets; and George Green won the Daffy Duck proof sheet.

The most popular exhibit was Catapult Mail by Mark Sellhorn.
