January 12 Meeting

We met with 25 members attending and two visitor one of whom, Garry Weber, joined the club. Welcome, Garry. LaVonne passed around a volunteer help sheet for LINPEX 2023. If you see an area on the attached sheet that you would like to help with, please come and volunteer. Help is especially needed on Saturday setup and Sunday breakdown. We currently have 11 frames of exhibits for the show and we would like to full that out to 20. If you would like show what you collect, let any of the officers know by February 15. Our exhibits are non-competitive—just for fun. We have 7 dealers for the show this year, including two new dealers- Tiger Collectibles and new club member, Roy Whittington.. Please support them, they make our show possible.

The February meeting will feature a scavenger hunt for animals on stamps alphabetically. You can bring your stamps; bring pictures of your stamps if you don't want to remove them from your albums; or you can look through tubs of stamps that will be at the meeting. Rene Ferdinand won the door prize of a set of Royal Mail stamps and Keith Riese won the door prize of U.S. plate blocks of the A, B, C, and D stamps. Everyone was reminded that first class postage will go up to 63 cents on January 22.

Cynthia Carlson passed around a collection of vintage New Year's postcards.

Joh Radway passed around a 1929 first flight cover from Brownsville Texas to Mexico City flown by Charles Lindbergh.

Edgar Hicks showed a recent article that he co-authored in Kelleher's Stamp Collector's Quarterly entitled "The Recruitment of Black Soldiers in Maryland During The Civil War."

Brad Shay showed a booklet of Japan's National Park Stamp Series 1936–1941.

Mark Sellhorn passed around a 1901 advertising cover from the Parry Manufacturing Co. (predecessor to the Willys/Jeep companies).

The meeting was followed by robust sales of donated material.

2023 Dues

We are now into a new year. Please check the number behind your name on the mailing label. If it is not 23 or after, please consider sending in your dues ,or better yet, bring it in person to the meeting or LINPEX.
