ANNIVERSARY

1964—2024
Sixty Years

NEWSLETTER

Editor: Mark Sellhorn

It is with a sad heart that we report the passing of Randy Bergstrom. He was a member of our club for several years and an active member of the Omaha club as well. Randy had a variety of collecting interests and was an active participant in our activities and at LINPEX Randy closed his final album on February 20. He will be missed.

February 8 Meeting

We met with 27 members and four guests—Gary Biskup, guest of John Radway and Andy Cunningham brought his three grandsons Peter, Frances, and Oscar and all three joined the club. Welcome Peter, Frances, and Oscar. Preparations for LINPEX were discussed—9 dealers have committed to the show, the covers with inserts are being printed and will be ready next week. We have 18 of the 20 frames of exhibits lined up and we need more volunteers for security.

LaVonne will present a program on indicia stamps in March; the April meeting will have donation sales. Bob Akaki will present “Amache Mail” in May.

The door prizes were won by these folks:

Keith Riese won a set of the 1986 presidential souvenir sheets (Sc. 2216-2219).

John Toy also won a set of the 1986 presidential souvenir sheets (Sc. 2216-2219).

Dave Hilgoss won a set of the 1976 souvenir sheets (Sc. 1686–1689).

David Arunski passed around a couple of Federal Boating Stamps issued by the Post Office for the U.S. Coast Guard and an explanation of their intended use.

Mike Ley showed a 1964 Burmese cover using uncanceled parts of different stamps spliced together to defraud the post office.

Mark Sellhorn passed around a postcard mailed in 1924 at the British Empire Exhibition showing a scene of the Prince of Wales carved in butter.

The meeting was followed by a robust and well-received sale of donated material.

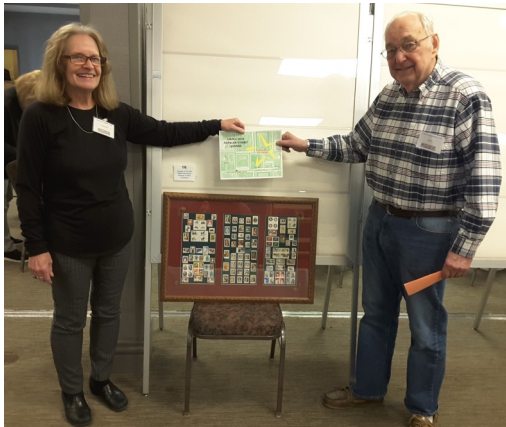

LINPEX 2024

LINPEX was a huge success this year. Club members and dealers alike agreed that the show was busier than any other that could be remembered. In fact, one dealer stated that he did more business in the first 2 hours of the show than he did all of his last show in Louisville, KY. By my count, we had 35 club members and a couple hundred potential members. Mike Ley did a presentation on the points to consider when putting an exhibit together and followed his talk with a walk-thru of the show exhibits with a useful (and kind) critique of each. Joel Johnson was awarded the most popular for his framed display of old mint U.S. Christmas stamps. At the end of the show, one of our new dealers, Celeste Hampton, joined the club. Welcome, Celeste. The door prizes were won by Lily Jacobsen; Lily’s mother, Heather; and Lily’s uncle, Damien. Winners of sheet stamps in the children’s area were: Roselynn Guerrero; Mariano Alanassov; Xavier Savage; and Sam Masor. At the suggestions from several dealers, future shows are being considered for a Friday/Saturday venue.
